Verse 2:

There were rough and rocky waters
Hungry souls from every station
We were far, far away from home
It was the birth of a nation

Verse 3:

We were landlords, we were slaves
Now we are all bound together
Help us remember compassion and grace
Through dark clouds and stormy weather

Verse 4:

Some call it a rape of the land
Some call it civil-i-zation
It all depends on your point of view, my friend
It was the birth of a nation
